IH MEMBERSHIP & WEBSITE updates!

We have raised our game!

From the first week of December you, our lovely IH Members, will be able to change your membership details, including password, email and postal address, without needing to contact us first.

By now you should have received an email outlining how to log on to your new account. If you haven't received this please email us at accounts@ihhq.net or contact the office 01488 71300 between 9am to 1pm weekdays.

IH members website updates

We're also updating our IH Members website including regular educational videos and content – so please get in touch and let us know what you want to see!
