Europe > Switzerland ▾

About Switzerland

From the storybook villages and dizzying peaks of the Swiss Alps to the lakeside resorts of Geneva and Lucerne, landlocked Switzerland serves up some of Europe's most enchanting scenery (along with some of its most delicious cheeses and chocolates, too).

About New Zealand

Forever remembered for its "The Lord of the Rings" legacy, New Zealand's landscapes are deserving of their big screen fame—think lush rolling hills, volcano-sculpted moonscapes, UNESCO-listed glaciers, and white-sand beaches. Cities like Auckland, Wellington, and Queenstown follow suit, with photo-worthy scenery and a laid-back vibe.

About Les Sables-d'Olonne

The golden sands, yacht-filled marinas, and coastal promenades of Les Sables-d'Olonne are characteristic of France's Côte de Lumière, or Coast of Light, and the lively beach resort provides a suitably picturesque backdrop for the annual Vendée Globe yacht race.

About Germany

From the fairy-tale castles and medieval villages of Bavaria to the Rhine Valley's UNESCO-listed landscapes and the storied monuments of Berlin, Germany has many faces. Steeped in history, cities like Cologne, Frankfurt, and Hamburg are also among the coolest cultural hubs in Europe.

About Puglia

A patchwork of vineyards and olive groves, dotted with whitewashed hill towns and sun-bronzed beaches—Italy's southern heel has no shortage of photogenic landscapes. There are a few surprises, too, including the baroque city of Lecce and the Itria Valley, with its UNESCO-listed trulli houses.

About Arcachon

Just down the coast from Dune de Pilar, Arcachon's golden beaches and 1950s villas make it a choice destination for sophisticated holidaymakers. The sweeping ocean views are best enjoyed alongside regional delicacies such as Arcachon oysters and Bordeaux wine.

About Cordoba

As one of Argentina's largest cities, Cordoba's rich history is showcased in its regal colonial buildings and UNESCO-listed monuments, but this university town is also a cultural pioneer where art, music, and cuisine are celebrated with a glass of Fernet and coke, a local favorite.
